COMPLETE THE GAPS WITH A FORM OF HAVE TO OR MUST.

Must se refiere a una obligación entre dos personas, o una obligación que sientes. En cambio, must es una obligación personal, una obligación impuesta por el hablante. Si digo I must es algo que siento, no algo que tengo que hacer. Y si digo you must no es una regla o la ley, sino algo que quiero (fuertemente) que tu hagas. Una obligación personal, no institucional.

Y have to se refiere a una obligación externa... las reglas, la ley, algo que tienes que hacer y punto. Normalmente en mis clases explico que have to es algo que si no lo haces, hay consecuencias.
